The Verj

Natifuk’s township underwent a transformation bringing together a wide crosssection of the community to collaborate on the redesign and use of the town’s central median strip.

Using art, active participation and sustainable principles, the community created a new space that is functional and inviting, drawing on the town’s heritage.

One of the key components of The Verj is a sculpture known as “The Thing” created by artist Sam Deal, Kinetic Sculptures. “The Thing” is made from local farm machinery. Sam’s sculptures are constructed from recycled steel, cast iron and canvas and achieve independent movement through weight and balance.

Arapiles Bike Trail is a 33km off road recreational trail looping through the natural landscape of Natimuk, Mt Arapiles, Mitre Rock and Natimuk Lake. You will find interpretive signs with stories along the trail.

The trail can be completed as a loop or divided into smaller sections. Natimuk to Mt Arapiles is a 10km ride commencing at the rotunda near the skate park in Natimuk. Follow the Natimuk Creek out of town to Gladigau Rd and into the campground at Mt Arapiles.

Mt Arapiles to Mitre Rock is a short 3.3km undulating ride along a 4WD track. The track follows the base of Mt Arapiles from Centenary Park before crossing Natimuk-Frances Rd to reach Mitre Rock.

Mt Arapiles to Vinegar Hills is an 8km ride trail heading north through the Mitre Lake Reserve towards Vinegar Hill with magnificent views. There is no formed trail and riders may have to negotiate fallen trees and variable ground conditions. Not suitable in wet conditions.

Mt Arapiles to Natimuk Lake is a 23km ride of undulating terrain. This scenic section takes you along the base of Mt Arapiles to Mitre Lake and back along the edge of Natimuk Lake to the Natimuk Caravan park, providing showers, BBQ and camping facilities. Not suitable in wet conditions. Natimuk Lake is a 3.7km trail from the Old Courthouse car park that follows the Natimuk Creek.
