

Horsham Town Hall

VENUE

Horsham Town Hall, comprising the redeveloped Horsham Regional Art Gallery and a new 500-seat theatre, are part of Horsham Rural City Council's suite of conference, meeting and event venues.

The venue which extends from Wilson Street through to Pynsent Street in the Central Activity District, was officially opened in February 2016 and is recognised as Horsham's cultural hub.

Heritage features have been retained and preserved in the Wilson Street frontage of Horsham Regional Art Gallery and through various parts of the venue. New features include an east-facing glass foyer, 500-seat raked theatre, flat floor hall, kitchen, bar, full box office services, in-house technician and event management staff. A privately leased café is located at the Pynsent Street entrance.

LOCATION

Horsham Town Hall is located centrally in Horsham and is accessible from either Wilson Street or Pynsent Street. The area is surrounded by cafes, restaurants and accommodation facilities.

CONFERENCES/MEETINGS/EVENTS

The venue can accommodate an intimate meeting of 12 to a conference of 500, including break out spaces and catering arrangements.

Features include the latest audio and visual technology with data projector and screen, fly tower and conference facilities in the Education Workshop.

Horsham Town Hall staff offer a personalised service to discuss and plan your event, meeting or conference requirements and will ensure the highest level of presentation.

Professional ticketing of your event can also be provided by box office staff for both online and venue ticket purchases.
